ANNOUNCEMENTS

New York's popular fad is here, at the Olympia hall. Roller Skating Thanksgiving day, afternoon and evening, and will be open to the public every afternoon and evening following with the exception of Friday, December 1. This rink will be conducted by up to date management. All new skates, popular music, and a new preparation used to prevent dust, a good time to all Thanksgiving day, giving the people of Norwich a new and up to date place of amusement. Don't miss the opening.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville Acts and H. B. Warner in a Triangle feature.

For the first half of this week the management of the Davis has booked a show that is scheduled to appear ever seen here. The headline act is Roger Bray and company, four people with singing, dancing and comedy. In a vaudeville act, the headline act is a comedy act that everyone will like. Eugene DeBlanc, a dainty vaudeville comedienne, is the next act and she is a star by herself. The third act is Hill and Sylvani, who present a novel variety offering that is different from anything ever seen here. All three acts are big time, and will prove a big hit with the patrons of this theatre. The Triangle feature picture is H. B. Warner in A Vagabond Prince, a five part feature, and the colorful tale of a potted young nobleman who came to America in search for adventure and became the dominant figure in a delightful romance. It is replete with scenes of regal splendor at the start and then becomes abundant with the atmosphere of a comedy and a "bar-bary coast" where the romance begins. To complete the show there is the usual funny two reel Keystone comedy. Don't miss this show. Matinee today at 2:15, all seats 10 cents. Evening at 8:15 and 8:45, 10, 15 and 20 cents.

Neil O'Brien coming to Davis Theatre Friday, Dec. 1.

On Friday, December 1, Neil O'Brien and his great American minstrel will be the attraction at the Davis theatre. Neil and his merry men have always been big favorites with the patrons of this playhouse and that he will be welcome again this season is assured by the keen interest already in the show. The same high class entertainment that marked his visit here during the past five seasons will be repeated this season. Everything is new and many of the old favorites including Edna Ross are back with him to keep the fun going. Seats will be on sale Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, prices 25 cents to $1.50.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Sallie Fisher in The Little Shepherd of Bargain Row Special Feature For Today and Saturday.

The big special five reel Essanay production of The Little Shepherd of Bargain Row with Sallie Fisher starring and taking from Wallace McKent Barnes' novel, will be the attraction at the Auditorium for today and Saturday. Following is a synopsis of the interesting story. Nora Blake, brought up amongst the poor of the tenements where the tolling mothers have no time to hunt for money, though every penny counts, knew where to buy things the cheapest, so they called her "The Little Shepherd of Bargain Row." The little shepherd found herself up to the shoulders in the business of the great private secretary of Henry Hyman, owner of the famous Hyman's Jewelry store.

"Dicker" Hyman, the younger son, has just been expelled from school when the story opens and the elder Joseph, a rich man's son too lazy to be a student, is the owner of the store. Joseph, daughter of a scheming mother, Travers, the manager of the store, is jealous of Nora's standing with the owner, who has been a friend of Nora's since she was a child. In the event of his death he signified that in event of his death he wished Nora to assume the management for his son.

On the night of his death he asked repeatedly for Nora, but the scheming Travers, already in too deep from purchased jewels, sees that she is not found. He dashes the money from Hyman's deathbed to prove he is to be manager. However, he is wise or unwise—enough to keep Nora in her position.

Travers gives Lucile an expensive necklace, substituting an imitation, and also schemes with her mother, Mrs. Hudson, for the disposition of other jewels. In the meantime the two Hyman boys go on an auto trip to forget their grief. Joseph, the elder, for whom Nora feels a genuine affection, is badly hurt. Nora visits the house and learns of Travers' duplicity. Rescued young woman that she is, she recovers the lost jewels, has Travers arrested and rights most of the wrongs. As she and Joseph are alone Dicker and Edna, Nora's proteges whose interest in Dicker she feared, burst into the room and announce their marriage. Nora is delighted. Only one thing more is required to make her completely happy.

"Will you accept the management of the store and me for life?" asks Joseph. "Here goes my independence!" laughs Nora, the suffragist, as Joseph's arm circled her waist. The Heart Weekly News pictorial and a very frank Daniels comedy will also be shown.

BREED THEATRE.

"Hulda From Holland" Stars Mary Pickford—Superb Dutch Girl in Famous Players Production Feature For Today and Tuesday.

Mary Pickford has been starred upon the screen in characterizations of many pictures and personalities but the little Dutch Girl in Hulda From Holland, has never been surpassed in humor and genuine appeal to the heart. It is as Hulda from the dulle country that the foremost star of the motion picture screen will appear at the Breed theatre today and Tuesday. In this delightful tale of the land of the tulip Miss Pickford is more appealing, if possible, than in many of her previous appearances, a fact which, coupled with the picture quality of the Dutch settings and costumes which mark the opening of the picture, makes it an unusual production even for Miss Pickford and the Famous Players.

tion even for Miss Pickford and the Famous Players. Some of the richest comedy which Miss Pickford has ever displayed upon the screen is that which takes Breese and her little brothers, Heinie, Hans and Little Jacob. In her distress, Miss Pickford is as irresistible as ever, but in her funny Dutch way she develops a philosophical attitude toward the harsh things of this world which makes the scenes of all their bitterness. This is one of the most magnificent dramas in the history of the screen and as it will be at the Breed for two days only, the management has decided to have four showings to give everybody an opportunity to see this wonderful production. Matinees will be at 1:30 and 3, and the evening shows at 7 and 9:30 and all seats at all performances will be ten cents.

In addition to this feature the Breed will present the Pathe Weekly and a very funny new comedy. These comedies are new to Norwich audiences and are conceded to be the best now in comedies. They will be shown exclusively at the Breed from now on and will replace the Drew comedies.

PUBLIC LECTURE TONIGHT

Dr. James J. Walsh to Speak Under Auspices of White Cross Council.

One of the important events of the year for Norwich people will be the lecture to be given in the town hall this evening by Dr. James J. Walsh of New York under the auspices of White Cross Council, No. 13, L. of O. Dr. Walsh has lectured from Portland, Me. to Portland, Ore., and from St. Paul to New Orleans, but it is the first time that he has ever lectured in Norwich, and the citizens generally should attend in large numbers and give him a good reception.

The subject of his lecture, "The Press and the Public," is a subject of the greatest importance. The Times Democrat of New Orleans said: "Dr. James J. Walsh of New York, one of the most learned men in the practice of medicine, lecturer, student and scholar, spoke to a large audience of men and women last night. Dr. Walsh's argument was witty, pointed and instructive, didactic and entertaining."

The Paterson Call said: "Orpheus Hall was filled to the door last night by members of the Alma Mater Literary circle and their friends to listen to Dr. Walsh's lecture. To say that the audience was pleased would be putting it mildly, for the lecturer spoke thoroughly at home with his subject and has such a clear, pleasant way of speaking, with a sense of humor that pervades his every utterance, that he is a close touch with his hearers."

The subject of Dr. Walsh's lecture will be The Century of Columbus and it is a topic that will be of interest to all. The lecture will be given in the town hall at 8 o'clock and the doors will be open at 7:30. The lecture will be given in the town hall at 8 o'clock and the doors will be open at 7:30. The lecture will be given in the town hall at 8 o'clock and the doors will be open at 7:30.

Afternoon Dances at Mohican. Preparations are being made for the Thanksgiving afternoon dance at the Mohican hotel in New London from 1 o'clock on. Many special features have been arranged for by Manager F. B. Walker who is planning for the enjoyment of his friends. The dance programme will be prepared by Mr. Potter, fiscal director at the Mohican, which insures a most very attractive menu appropriate for the occasion will be served in the main dining room for which already many tables have been reserved.

PLAINFIELD

Sparks From Locomotive Burn 5-Ton Stack of Hay—Foresters' Smoker—Parker Given Joseph Lacrosse—Automobile Accident.

Five tons of hay owned by the Lawton Mills corporation and stacked directly behind the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. tracks, caught fire from sparks from a passing locomotive and was totally destroyed, Friday afternoon. The hay was stacked out of doors waiting for the completion of an addition being built on the company's barn.

Foresters' Smoker Talk. Court Plainfield, Independent Order of Foresters, No. 1813, held a smoke talk in Krauss' hall, Saturday evening. During the evening instrumental and vocal selections were rendered by various members of the court. Refreshments were served. There was a large attendance.

Party For Joseph Lacrosse. A number of friends of Joseph Lacrosse, head party in his honor at his home on Lawton Heights, Saturday evening. Various games were played and there was vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments were served by the host. A number of Norwich friends of Mr. Lacrosse were present at the party.

Boy Ran in Front of Car. Henry Betterman, proprietor of a local market, figured in an automobile accident in Greenville, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Betterman, according to local witnesses, was driving at a moderate rate of speed in the direction of Norwich. When near the Norwich Belt Company's plant a young boy, about 15, ran into the path of the oncoming car. Mr. Betterman, in an effort to avoid the boy, made a vain attempt to escape running the boy down. He was struck and knocked over. Mr. Betterman brought his car to a stop and rushed the boy to a doctor. It was feared that the boy might have a bone in his leg fractured.

Mr. Betterman is well known here as an exceedingly careful driver and the accident is considered unavoidable.

Motored to Game. Rev. Arthur Burwick, Cecil Bradford, Clarence Innes, and Walter Lathrop attended the Yale-Harvard game at New Haven, Saturday, making the trip in Mr. Lathrop's automobile.

Noted Out and About. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laycock spent Saturday in Norwich.

Miss Yvonne Paul of Percho, R. I., spent the week end with local friends. Miss Paul formerly resided in Plainfield.

Ovillas Dancet of Central Falls, R. I., spent Sunday here.

William Dodge of New Britain spent the week end with his parents.

A large number of automobile parties passed through here Saturday on their way to the big game at New Haven.

Henry Dodge of Providence, R. I., spent the week end at his home on the H. Packer road.

Elton Nolan spent the week end with Norwich relatives.

The Prisoner of Andersonville, under the direction of Fred Walsh, is to be presented for the St. John's festival. Many out of town people attended the photo play play, "Where Are My Children?" here Saturday.

Of all colors, red is the most conspicuous at a distance.
